E. Does Sussex I State Prison lack jurisdiction to detain the property of Israel?

8. Statement of Facts : Israel avers that Sussex I State Prison is now detaining Israel's property, which property is the corpus of this claim and the corpus of the Trust of the Mission signified within the text of Israel's Mission Statement by Apostille.

Israel avers that Israel's Mission Statement by Apostille is the establishment of a Fact in accord with international law, For it is a contract or agreement between Israel and Cory Alexander-Lee Wiggins, which is the Corpus of this Claim.

Israel avers in good faith that Sussex I State Prison's detainment of the corpus of this claim is interference with the functions of Israel's diplomatic mission, which is described in the Holy Scripture of Israel's Mission Statement by Apostille.

Israel avers that Israel has not given and will not give any kind of waiver concerning Israel's rights to the corpus of this claim, which is Cory Alexander-Lee Wiggins.

Israel wills to cause the removal of its' property from the detainment of Sussex I State Prison forthwith.

Israel avers that in detaining Cory Alexander-Lee Wiggins, which is the corpus of this claim, Sussex I State Prison is impairing the obligation of Israel's Mission Statement by Apostille.

Israel avers in good faith that in detaining Cory Alexander-Lee Wiggins, which is the corpus of this claim, Sussex I State Prison is detaining a Sovereign.

Israel avers in good faith that Sussex I State Prison is detaining the property of a sovereign constituent of the United Nations.

Since this matter has its' basis in international law, Israel does not expect Sussex I State Prison to comprehend the gravity of this situation, nor does Sussex I State Prison have a view to International Law, and for the aforementioned reasons Israel brings this matter to the attention of this Court, so that this Court may exercise its authority and expertise to interpret the law applicable to this correspondence with an aim at enforcing International Law to protect the interests of the Members of the United Nations.

Wherefore, Israel humbly and respectfully seeks a remedy.

Israel declares, that this correspondence is true, correct, and complete.

Signed on the 13th day of June year of Our Sovereign, Common Era 2010.
